

Kő is a stone consultation, fabrication, and distribution team. A band of rock enthusiasts that have come together to enrich the process of designing & building with stone.

Our name, Hungarian for “stone”, reflects our deep-rooted belief that stone is a preeminent building material. With its exceptional durability, minimal maintenance requirements, and natural diversity of beautiful patterns, textures, and colors - there is no other material to better ensure your project will stand the test of time.

With our passion for stone at the forefront, we have crafted a hands-on service and a carefully curated collection of thin and full-depth veneer, hardscape, and cut-stone options. Whether you're an architect, designer, builder, or homeowner, we aim to be an indispensable part of your extended team, to ensure that your project achieves unparalleled excellence in form and function when designing and building with natural stone.

CUT-STONE COLLECTION

Architectural cut-stone is a symphony of possibilities. Drawing from a global tapestry of stone blocks, we sculpt them into a myriad of elements: from sophisticated cladding and majestic arches to intricate sills, tympanums, keystones, balusters, and more - each piece a testament to nature's artistry and human's craftsmanship.
